Mrs. Maryland America 2017
Faime Trevillian

Mrs. America features the most accomplished married women of America. Mrs. America remains the foremost competition for married women. The renowned competition is devoted to emphasizing that America's 65 million married women are extraordinarily beautiful, poised, articulate and versatile. Each year, Mrs. America and the state titleholders make personal appearances during their reign, speaking to and for our country's greatest natural resource, and most important constituency—it's married women.

Director's Letter

As Executive Producer and Directors for the Mrs. Maryland America Pageant, we wish to thank so many key individuals and former Mrs. Maryland Titleholders, who have tirelessly served to ensure the success of our Pageant.

To our beautiful and gracious 2017 Titleholder: Jaime Trevillian – What an amazing job you have done as Mrs. Maryland. Thank you for being authentically YOU. You deserve every bit of recognition and acclaim you receive! You continually went the extra mile.

Sharing your gifts of intelligence, humor, integrity and a pure heart. Thank you for always being ready to step up and make appearances; representing the best of married American women. You always had a fabulous attitude, while following through with your duties. Your commitment to the Mrs. Maryland America family was evident as you gathered sponsors and mentored this years' contestants through to the end. You continually gave us your elegance, time, resources and heart while promoting the Pageant and many other worthy causes; especially the Alzheimer's Association. May all your dreams come true, as you raise your lovely family and make an impact on the World. We all love you, Jaime.

Thank you to all of our esteemed Judges, Auditors, Pageant Staff and Coordinators for giving your time selflessly.

To the Families of our Delegates: We all appreciate your support and love. Letting your wife shine for all to see can be intimidating and it takes a confident man to enable the process. Children, we hope that you have had fun reflecting on how important your Mom is to you and those around her...And how much she loves you. We know we are not perfect and we thank you for loving us anyway.

And finally, to our lovely contestants: You are all more than qualified to take home the crown tonight. The choice is going to be very difficult for the judges. You have reached out to so many and created a ripple effect of good works that will affect generations. Thank you for your flexibility, your enthusiasm, and being strong role models for our communities.

God Bless you and God Bless America!

With affection to all,
Laurett, Laura, & Drew

Executive Producer

LAURETT ELLSWORTH ARENZ has been directing the Mrs. Maryland America Pageant since 2004. She is tremendously grateful for the enthusiastic support she receives from the former Mrs. Maryland titleholders. Laurett is especially grateful for the hard work of the Pageant team: Laura Price, Judges and Program Coordinator, and Producer, Drew Vanlandingham.

Laurett fell in love with the Mrs. America organization when she was crowned Mrs. Virginia America 2001 and Mrs. America 2002. She had the honor of judging the Mrs. World Pageant twice: once in Las Vegas in 2003 and again in December 2017 in South Africa.

Laurett is author of the best-selling and award winning book, The RAFT Strategy: Your Retirement Approach Free of Tax and Other Safe Investing Secrets. She and her husband David own HERO'S Strategies, a financial services company which serves thousands of clients through numerous affiliate advisers throughout the country. Together they host a weekly radio show, which airs nationally. The show can also be heard from their website, WeBuildYourWealth.com.

As a Certified Life Coach and former Mrs. America, Laurett loves to help and watch others achieve their goals and to realize their potential. "I am always inspired by the Mrs. Maryland contestants and Queens because they live lives of integrity and serve their communities. They stand as stellar role-models." She says, "Thank you for promoting the magic of the Mrs. Maryland America crown and for the gift of your friendship. I feel blessed to be apart of your lives."

Pageant Staff

Su Joing Sollers, your Mistress of Ceremonies, is a bi-racial Korean and African American beauty queen and Mrs. Maryland 2015 was born in El Paso, Texas September 12, 1977. She grew up as an Army brat and graduated as a Junior from Killeen High School in 1995, then enlisted in the US Air Force and served our country as a Services Airman from 1995 to 1999, during that time she won numerous awards; Airman of the Quarter, Airman of the Group, Airman of the Year and most notably the Air Force Achievement Medal. While serving in the Air Force she entered and won her very first beauty pageant and held the title Miss Teen Omaha 1996. She attended Bellevue University in Nebraska and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management. She went back to the same university and graduated with a Masters in Business Administration. While studying, she entered and won Miss Nebraska USA 2001 and represented Nebraska at the annually televised Miss USA Pageant in 2001. Sollers has been in the banking industry for 14 years as a commercial banker and works for BB&T Bank as a Vice President, Small Business Team Leader where she is a player and coach to a team of bankers. Sollers was married on December 31, 2014 to a United States Air Force Veteran Royce Sollers Jr where they have two children India and Ava. In her spare time you can find her teaching financial literacy classes, fine dining, gardening, spending time with her family, researching her latest interest and being an enthusiastic Beachbody Coach to help others achieve their own fitness goals.

Laura Everngam Price, your Pageant Coordinator, has been married for 25 years to her husband Richard. They are the proud parents of two boys, Nicholas, a graduate of William & Mary and headed to Medical school this year, and Justin, a junior at Elon University, majoring in Political Science. Together they own a family business - Ship and Print Place, which is where she creates the Mrs. Maryland program book, in addition to many other types of print design.

Laura entered the political arena in 2010, running for and winning a seat on the Talbot County Council and is running this year for a second re-election in 2018. She credits her pageant background and experience in helping achieve this position. Laura's former titles include Mrs. Delaware United States 2007, America's Fit Mrs. 2006 and Mrs. Maryland America 2005. She also was a featured dancer in the movie, "The Wedding Crashers." Laura is also a former national level Figure Skater and soloist with the Ice Capades. She is an avid Ravens fan and also loves to vacation in the Caribbean, dance, and spend time jet-skiing on the Tred Avon river with her family.

Charlita Woodruff-White, your Auditor, is a native of Birmingham, AL. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Tuskegee University and a Master's degree in Applied Mathematics from Auburn University. She was an Assistant Professor of Mathematics at Talladega College (Alabama) and a Mathematics Instructor at Alabama A&M University and. She now resides in Baltimore, MD where she is a Mathematics Lecturer at Morgan State University.

Charlita has competed and held various titles in collegiate pageants. She was a classically-trained pianist and competed in numerous local competitions. She is a certified pageant judge with the American Child Pageant Judge Association (ACPJA) for pageant programs in Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, Alabama, and Florida. Charlita has been married to Julius White for almost 4 years. She enjoys photography and is a certified Scuba diver.

Judges

Julie Cangialosi B.S., R.D, Mrs. DC America 2017, is the reigning Mrs. of America 2018 recently competing on the international stage at The Mrs. World Pageant in Johannesburg, South Africa. Julie is a successful strategic account manager for Novartis Pharmaceuticals and a fitness professional, instructing Barre and Pilates. She continues to promote her platform of increasing awareness of pregnancy loss and miscarriage as a broad member for The CADE Foundation, Savannah's Fund.

Dr. Alyssa Todaro Brooks is a Pittsburgh native who works at the National Institutes of Health as a research scientist and is an adjunct professor at the University of Maryland. Dr. Brooks' passion for service is evident through her involvement with the Women's Leadership Initiative and her role of President of the School of Public Health Alumni Network at the University of Maryland. She has over 15 years of experience with pageantry as a contestant, board member, coach, and judge. She is an active member of the Association for Women in Science and the National Italian-American Foundation.

Roger Mack is a certified personal trainer with NASM (National Academy of Sports Medicine). His past experience involves working with celebrities, being featured on television shows and acting as a motivational speaker and fitness consultant...just to name a few. His career started back in early 2000's when he qualified for the 2003 and 2004 USA Indoor Championship in the 60m high hurdles. Later that year, he qualified for the 2004 Olympic Games in the 110m high hurdles. Though unfortunately, an Achilles injury halted his Olympic career. He now competes as a competitive USA Track and Field Masters Sprinter. In addition to his track career, he worked with NBC's Biggest Loser Season 6 on the "Green Team" with Adam and Stacey Capers, whom he led to the finals. Roger is also an ambassador for Lululemon who he works in partnership with to run his successful DC Sprint Club.

John Mahlmann Ed. D., is an eloquent spokesman for arts education who has built a reputation throughout the nation as an effective leader in the field, Dr. John J. Mahlmann has had a distinguished career that weaves together of art and music into a single distinctive contribution to arts education in America. As the past executive director of the world's largest arts education organization, MENC: The National Association for Music Education, He earned both a bachelor's and master's degree in fine arts from Boston University, and a doctorate in education from Pennsylvania State University. He later served on the faculty of both institutions, and taught at several other colleges and universities. Dr. Mahlmann received an honorary Doctorate of Music degree from Duquesne University.

The National Art Education Association in Reston, Virginia, provided Dr. Mahlmann his first opportunity to combine his love of the fine arts with his knowledge of education and his ability as an administrator and manager. As executive director, 1970 to 1982, he administered more than a decade of continuous growth for that organization. Dr. Mahlmann was executive director of MENC: The National Association for Music Education, the world's largest association of professional music educators for nearly 30 years. Over the years, he has led MENC through a period of substantial membership growth, innovative programs and vigorous advocacy of music education in our nation's schools. He also served on numerous task forces and certification committees, has contributed to panels and roundtables on arts education, and has judged numerous exhibits and contests including the Mrs. America pageant and was the announcer and a judge of Mrs. World event in recent years.

Mrs. Maryland 2017 Farewell

Friends, Family, Supporters, and Delegates,

What an incredible journey it has been! 20 years ago my own mother stood on the Mrs. MD America stage with the goal of taking home the title and crown. My family and I were there to witness the incredible honor given to her at the time. Following my mom throughout her reign inspired me to be involved in my community. I knew then that I wanted to follow in her footsteps with the goal of, one day, becoming Mrs. Maryland America.

My reign this year has been one of the most incredible, uplifting and inspiring experiences of my life. I would not have earned the title without the love, support and encouragement I received from all my family, friends and sponsors through this journey. Thank you for believing in my dreams!

Mom, your undying faith in me has never faltered through this journey. I am the luckiest daughter in the world to have you as my mom!

Dad, thank you for accompanying me as we shared our family's story at all the Alzheimer's Association appearances throughout my reign. You've always encouraged me to follow my dreams no matter how big or small they may be. You've always taught me that with hard work and dedication anything is possible. Thank you for believing in me!

Brandon, you're my partner, best friend, biggest fan and love of my life. I cannot imagine going through this crazy life without you! Thank you for being the most amazing husband and father. I love you more and more everyday of our magnificent life together.

Laurett, Drew and Laura, thank you for your dedication to this amazing organization. I am truly blessed to be a part of the Mrs. America Family!

To the new Mrs. Maryland America, continue to inspire and empower women throughout your reign. I'm here for you for any support or guidance you may need. Enjoy every moment of this extraordinary year!

A Beautiful Mess:
Real Moms. Real Life.
Real Honest.

Aleiha created "A Beautiful Mess" when she realized that she wasn't the only mom in America struggling with the idea of "doing it all and making it look easy." After all, how many of us have looked at another mom and thought, "she has the best behaved children, cleanest house, healthiest meals AND a fantastic career?" And why can't I seem to handle all of that too?

Once she stepped back and noticed that ALL women struggle in some way, and not one of us is perfect, she felt stronger and able to embrace the "Beautiful Mess" of life! She might have a tiara and evening gown, but her house is messy, her meals are unplanned and her kids...well, they're perfect in her eyes.

Style even more than fashion is the essence. It's not so important to follow fashion trends but rather to create and embrace your own style.

My name is Helene, I am an independent wardrobe Stylist and Fashion Expert based in Washington DC. I won Best Emergent Clothing Stylist at the Maryland Fashion Awards 2013 and was a nominee as best clothing stylist for two years in a row. I work on fashion editorials, commercial photo shoots and advertising campaigns for designers. I also provide fashion consulting and personal shopping services for a private clientele who wants to achieve better looks. Each year, I work as a stylist for NY fashion week styling runways for international designers.

I do believe fashion is art and was strongly influenced by my Parisian years as I spent eight years of my youth as a student in Paris. Walking the Parisian streets where fashion and art is at every corner of every street, has truly influenced me. Parisian flair is still very much of an inspiration to me when creating outfits.

Dear David,

Thank you for your steadfast devotion to ending the drug abuse epidemic that is ravaging communities across America. This battle is personal for far too many families, including yours.

I appreciate your input on selecting the next Director of National Drug Control Policy. We need strong leaders in place as we reinvigorate our national effort to stop drugs from pouring into our communities and help Americans in desperate need of treatment.

Your substantial personal efforts, which require you to take time away from your business and family, have been helpful in fighting our epidemic of illegal drugs, helping to ensure that families will no longer endure the tragedy of losing a loved one to drug abuse.

Thank you, again, for your support. I appreciate your valued offer to engage with me and my Cabinet as we move forward.

Sincerely,

WESTGATE RESORTS

David Siegel

Thank you for your support of the Victoria Siegel Foundation and standing with us to raise awareness and provide essential support to youth and families affected by substance abuse.

Your investment is in the lives of struggling teens seeking the guidance and assistance they need to navigate life in a healthy and positive way. In the coming months, we will share specific ways your resources will be used to make a meaningful impact in drug prevention, substance abuse counseling and related areas.
