Mrs. Maryland 2018 Farewell

*To my family, friends, supporters and the
Mrs. Maryland & Miss for Maryland Class of 2019,*

364 days ago, I stood on this very stage with absolutely no idea of what an incredible blessing was about to come my way. In 2011, I retired from pageantry after 20 years of ups and downs and had sworn to never return until dear sweet Laurett called and convinced me to give pageantry one more shot. That phone call literally changed my life as this year as Mrs. Maryland 2018 has been one of the most incredibly uplifting and inspiring experiences of my life and it would not have been possible without the love, encouragement and support that I received from friends and family near and far.

Joevon - you are literally the ying to my yang. What a crazy adventure we've had the past 11 years and I thank God for allowing me to continue to experience life with you by my side. Thank you for putting up with the pageant craziness....post retirement. LOL!

Mom - You are ALWAYS there no matter whether I am 2 or 42. Nothing in my life would be possible without you and your support. Thank you and I hope that I have made you proud. Stink, Pooh and Twizit - you guys are the best kids and thank you for always being willing to share your mom with the world. You keep me grounded and remind me daily of why I do what I do....it's all for YOU. My greatest joy in life is being your mother.

Laurett - you have been a godsend. Thank you for always having my back even when times got rough. YOU ROCK! Adrienne, Shana, Maria, Bea, Caressa, Leslie, Portia and Paul - You guys literally were my strength this entire year and I will forever love you for it. You truly are the BEST friends and support system. Kim, Brandi, Chrissy, and Jeri - I am beyond proud of you ladies. That experience changed us all and I will forever have your backs. Just call me and I WILL be there.

To my many sponsors and supporters - THANK YOU. Without your generosity and support my accomplishments during this year wouldn't have been possible. Thank you for believing in me.

To Mrs. Maryland & Miss for Maryland 2019 - never let someone else determine your worth. Remember, this is just a pageant and there is real life beyond the crown. Stay humble and strive every day to be the change that you want to see in this world. Enjoy the ride because it will be extraordinary and remember that I am here for you always.

And finally, to the many organizations and teachers that afforded me the opportunity to mentor and work with the young people in our region over this past year, I appreciate you. Connecting with our young people is one of my life's passions and I am eternally grateful to have been able to work side-by-side with you this year. Our work has just begun...

With much love, respect and admiration,

Yolanda

We know we are not perfect and we thank you for loving us anyway.

And finally, to our lovely contestants: You are all more than qualified to take home the crown tonight. The choice is going to be very difficult for the judges. Brian Young is a native Arkansan Graduating with a B.A. from the University of Central Arkansas with a degree in education. Brian began his teaching career and remained in the Arkansas Teaching System until something else caught his eye. Brian took a job for one of the largest retail companies known as Dillard's Inc. He quickly realized this is where his true love and passion for style and fashion would begin. He immediately was recognized for his flair for a tailored yet stylish look as well as climbed the ladder to a corporate retail position. Dillard's saw the style and flair and not only put him through upper management but also through buying for this national yet stylish icon. While in his career at Dillard's many designer's and brands were impressive but yet one stood out for his personal style and Taste. That designer would be and none other than the iconic Polo Ralph Lauren. This became not only a buying and selling focus for him but also a personal style favorite.

After a successful and 10 plus year career at Dillard's Mr. Young was approached but Chicos FAS which is originally Maryland owned as the store White House Black Market. This was a new and exciting change to the world of style being thrown into Women's Wear through construction, fabric knowledge, and personally styling individuals for every occasion. He will see his career grow and change with promotions, store changes, and changing the way women wear everyday for style and evening. In 2014 Mr. Young was transferred from Little Rock Arkansas to Baltimore Maryland to help mold and change the Harbor East Location in Downtown Baltimore MD. 2016 after meeting one of the Largest Bridal Retailers in the country He began his career for Betsy Robinson's Bridal Collection. He now uses all of his local and national retail experience as not only front house position for the store, but consults to help each woman have an experience that will change and mold the happiest day of their lives. Working in Fashion in the beginning has opened his eyes to style, lines, color, texture and more importantly finding the person who makes each piece of style speak to who they are. After a 25 year plus career Mr. Young can still say that he loves working in all aspects of style but loves seeing the style come to life inside his passion and the excitement of those who wear it.

Kendall Smith is a 26 year old graduate of Old Dominion University. She received her bachelor's degree in Physical Education with a concentration in Exercise Science and a minor degree of the arts in Dance Performance. In 2012 Kendall embarked on a journey that would change her life in a positive direction. She became Miss White Oak in 2012, Miss Prince George's County in 2013, Miss University City 2014, Miss Annapolis 2015 and ended as Miss Cumberland 2016 when she aged out at the age of 24.

Since then, Kendall has become a mentor for young girls and women throughout the Miss America Organization as the Local Executive Director of the Miss Potomac and Free State Scholarship Organization.

This June, she has 4 Teens and 4 Miss Contestants vying for the titles of Miss Maryland and Miss Maryland's Outstanding Teen in Hagerstown, MD. Moving forward, Kendall will be enlisting in the United States Navy and shipping off for boot camp this summer. We wish her all the best!

Owen Michael O'Donnell is a 17-year cosmetic veteran based proudly in Baltimore. The busy makeup artist has worked everywhere from Saks Fifth Avenue to Sephora (as a manager), as well as several salon/spa chains. His work has been featured in magazines such as Elle, Cosmo, Girl's Life, Baltimore Style, Health, Self, Baltimore Mag, as well as many commercials and fashion events. Owen is a regular fixture on Baltimore TV news, both on-camera and behind the scenes. He also guest teaches at local beauty schools and heads up a cosmetics program for cancer patients at a local hospital.

The native Baltimorean has always thought of the city and its environs as a series of unique villages - each with its own panache and memorable characters. He's always struck by how much style there is and frustrated with just how easy it is to miss if you don't know where to look. After venturing into a full time freelance career and leading, coaching, and developing others he became frustrated with the overwhelming but not well edited options for clients and in turn the lack of lucrative options for a working makeup artist to offer. Having worked for the top department stores from Saks to Hechts and brands like Bobbi Brown, MAC, Laura Mercier as well as management at Ulta and Sephora leading into spa training , event planning, philanthropy, and media work he started offering his own personal shopping services for private clients.

Renowned and respected for honestly and quickly being able to edit down what worked and what didn't as well as where to save vs splurge he was the anti sales person. After developing a reputation for this straightforward approach he became the beauty editor for a regional magazine and two separate beauty columns . This gave the opportunity to hear other industry professionals needs, wins, and frustrations . After nearly two years of that and feeling like he'd seen everything but nothing was the right combination of, opportunity, pro quality, ease of use, that could go anywhere he began to cultivate and develop his own line that couldn't be called anything but essentials. Put together based on what he knew was in his own kit at all times that he could just grab and be prepared for anything it is everything you the client , retailer, or artist need without all the fuss. A mentor of Owen's always said you can spend some money, save some money, or even earn some money. He hopes that rings true for all of you and looks forward to working with you.

Chanda Brigrance is a native of Houston, Texas and graduated from Texas Southern University with a B.A. in Business Management. After college, Chanda taught first grade for the Arch Diocese in Texas before marrying O.J. Brigrance. Once they settled in Baltimore, Chanda managed special events including organizing initiatives and programs for Baltimore Ravens players, wives, coaches and front office staff.

A certified Professional Event Planner, Chanda founded her own events management and design company – Crowning Creations, LLC. Chanda was also a team leader with her church's Hospitality Ministry. Chanda created the Brigrance Brigade Foundation with her husband O.J. and has been focused on helping patients with ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease) and their families, while also raising awareness about the disease across the country. Chanda serves as Vice Chairperson of the Brigrance Brigade Foundation Board of Directors. She and her husband have raised well over $1 million for the fight against ALS since they were diagnosed with the disease in 2007. In 2016, Chanda was honored as the GridIron Greats Woman of the Year for her work with the ALS community.
