September 18, 2021

WELCOME TO THE SHOW!

Dearest Contestants, Family, & Friends,

To our contestants - you are the reason we are here. This day is for all of you. It takes so much love, support, dedication, and heart to bring a pageant to life. We are so proud of each and every one of you.

To the communities here supporting their favorite lady - behind every great woman is her tribe who has her back and tells her to straighten her crown on the hard days. Thank you for being the support and the light for these AMAZING women.

To our guests in the audience - the immensely talented ladies who are here tonight are the epitome of all the beautiful things we want to highlight about our great state. Some are single, some married, some tall, some short, and from all walks of life. One thing each of these amazing women has in common is that they are remarkably dedicated to making their world a better place. We would be proud to crown any of these women as they are all worthy of the titles they are vying for tonight. You are in for a real show tonight!

With Deepest Affection,
Laurett Ellsworth Arenz
Rachel St Amour
Drew Vanlandingham

Mrs. Maryland 2020 Farewell

A year ago I embarked on my dream job and journey as Mrs. Maryland. While the nation battled through the COVID-19 pandemic, community service and assisting those in need remained at the forefront of my mind as a titleholder. The opportunity to share, serve and learn from the most accomplished women in pageantry is an experience I will never forget. As an officer in the U.S. Army, I represent .01% of women in my field and this experience allowed me to be an advocate for Women's Empowerment. My message was simple - A healthy work-life balance assumes great significance for working women; be patient - A thriving career and maintaining a happy family life is challenging; be resilient - You are extraordinarily blessed; be grateful for your success and failures. Words can't express just how thankful I am to the Mrs. Maryland team for entrusting me with the responsibility of upholding this prestigious title and advocating for women throughout our wonderful state.

First and foremost I want to thank God for faithfulness, for my family that's so supportive, my health and the many blessings that gave me the strength to persevere. None of this would have been possible without your grace, love, and mercy.

Countless friends and family have assisted me throughout this reign and I can't thank them enough for their unwavering dedication and support. Top Tier CrossFit and Silvana Valencia (Real Estate Pro) words fall short when I try to express my gratitude for your gracious contributions and I am so privileged and humbled to have received your sponsorship.

This is not a goodbye, I will forever wear this crown on my heart. Hysha and Anna you have been the best sash sisters a Queen could ever ask for! I love you for your kindness, your resilience and wisdom. To the next Mrs. Maryland, congratulations. You are about to embark on an experience like none other with the support of a community and team that is unsurpassable. Thank you, thank you, thank you and God bless!

Your Mrs. Maryland America 2020, Keisha Ruiz

Mrs. Maryland American 2020 Farewell

Hysha and her loving husband Jeremiah serve as active members of the church and have performed missionary work in Mexico and Haiti. Hysha enjoys volunteering for Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, and started H.Y.S.H.A for women to connect and encourage one another through the twists and turns of life. Hysha was diagnosed with Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS) and infertility challenges. After multiple surgeries, Hysha and her husband Jeremiah lived through a hopeful journey that resulted in the birth of their daughter, Hazel-Grey in 2015.

Hysha's greatest community involvement is my partnership with Darkness to Light and bringing education about the societal problem of child sexual abuse and using education to establish prevention. When schools closed due to the pandemic, Hysha needed to act. She wants to make each person able to identify risk, mitigate opportunity, and ability to help the children around us. As a parent and a survivor, she desires to live in a world where every child is safe.

Hysha has worked in the field of Financial Aid for over twenty years. She has held director positions at Gallaudet University for deaf students and Johns Hopkins University. She has also worked in the financial aid offices at Rochester Institute of Technology and the University of Rochester in NY.

Hysha is honored to have served as your 2020 Mrs. Maryland American and thankful for all she accomplished during this chaotic year. Her final plea is that people are challenged by societal issues and are spurred to find a way to make a change. She wishes her successors success, but that they have felt the burning desire to want to be the change.

Helen Keller once stated that "Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope and confidence." Hysha has been thrilled to live a life consisting of hope, adventure, and serving others and hopes that future endeavors will allow her similar opportunities.

A full-length portrait of Hysha Nesmith, Mrs. Maryland American 2020. She is a Black woman with long, dark, wavy hair, wearing a silver tiara and large blue hoop earrings. She is smiling and holding a white sash with red and blue borders. The sash features the text "MRS. MARYLAND" in blue, with "MRS." and "MARYLAND" separated by a small star. On the left side of the sash, there is a small graphic of the Maryland state flag. She is wearing a blue lace dress with a large floral pattern. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Special Thanks to all my sponsors, supporters and loved ones. I could do none of this without you.

Don't forget we all have a duty. It is to protect our most vulnerable, our children.

Miss Maryland for America Strong 2020 Farewell

What an honor it has been to represent the incredible state of Maryland. This year has been monumental for me in many ways including; expanding the Addy Fund, landing the Head of Sales position at EchoPark, and becoming a better version of myself. I am grateful and proud of all I've achieved and I am excited for all that is to come.

To Hysha and Keisha, I will never forget our VIP flight to Nationals, especially our crowns made out of snack packs.

Melvin & Amanda, having best friends who live out of state isn't ideal, but you both have supported me endlessly. You make me feel like you're never really that far away.

To the Miss Maryland for America team, thank you for your encouraging words and for making me feel beautiful at Nationals.

To the contestants, I am so proud of each of you for making the choice to be here. Promoting your platform and reaching for your dreams are a win in itself.

To the next queen, I am beyond excited for you to make your year everything you want it to be!
Tonight you not only win a crown, but you also gain a new sister- one who will always support and encourage you.

As I pass on the crown, I reflect on all the memories I have had throughout the year.
I will carry these memories in my heart forever.

Victory Ram (Ram, like BAM) is a 15-year pageant veteran who has captured numerous awards, including countless interview, talent, spokesmodel, and acting awards, in addition to state and national titles across various systems.

Passionate about about pageantry and what it can do for young women, Victory has helped to prepare her clients for over 135+ local, state, national, and international title and award wins through her company, Be Victorious Prep. In addition, her clients have gone on to compete international events, like the World Championships of Performing Arts, bringing home gold medals and honorable mentions in the modeling, acting, and talent competitions, which are judged by agents from around the world.

For five years, Victory served as the the Director of Education at the Barbizon School of Modeling, Acting, and Personal Development in Baltimore, Maryland. Using her 15 years of experience in the pageant, modeling, acting, and talent worlds, Victory was able to share her expertise with her students to help prepare them for success in the industry. In fact, many of her students have been featured in magazines, Atlantic City Fashion Week, Baltimore Fashion Week, commercials, and more.

Victory also has experience all across the entertainment industry, having been a promotional model for Almay Cosmetics, featured in the movie "Step Up", within the pages of I Am Modern magazine, and on the cover of Supermodels Unlimited Magazine. She is also a certified makeup artist with MAC makeup and she owns The Bravado Boutique. You can also catch her on various episodes of local TV, as she was the host for School Court TV on Fox Baltimore and has been on HBO's VEEP.

Expanding her horizons, in 2015, she launched the International Empowerment Academy and became the proud author of "Why People Fail and How You Can Learn to Succeed," which is available on Amazon. She is also a sought after public speaker on confidence, dressing for success, branding, and personal development. Most recently, she became the Director of the Baltimore Small Business Meetup Group.

Victory is currently the Business Director of the Miss Baltimore, Miss Annapolis, and Miss Anne Arundel County Scholarship Pageants, which are official local preliminaries of the Miss America Organization. She also serves as an advisor for the Miss Eastern Shore and Miss Ocean City Scholarship Pageants and for the Miss Globe United States Pageant, where she serves as the Assistant National Director.

With a Bachelors degree in Political Science and a Masters in Communications and Public Relations, Victory is leading the pageant and personal development industries, by helping others 'be victorious' in ALL that they do.

Dr. Daniel Markmann is an established and highly skilled plastic surgeon, board certified by the American Board of Plastic Surgery. With over 25-years of experience and recognition from beauty experts across the nation, Dr. Markmann is one of America's and Maryland's top plastic surgeons. His extensive training focuses on both, Body Contouring, such as breast & buttock augmentation, 6-pack Ab Etching, skin tightening after bariatric weight loss surgery, as well as Facial Rejuvenation such as facelift surgery and minimally invasive facial rejuvenation procedures.

Known for his old-fashioned style, Dr. Markmann has devoted his career to taking care of the cosmetic surgery needs of his patients at his practice Metamorphosis Plastic Surgery & Medispa, located in Ellicott City, Maryland. He takes the time to work with every patient through personalized consultations using the newest surgical techniques and the latest technology to provide the best results possible.

Owner of The Patio Salon. Patty specializes in thinning hair and is certified in several extension methods, giving confidence back to people who otherwise had lost hope in their thin hair.

Patty is wife to her husband Dean, of 26 years and the mother of two children, Andrew 21 and Elaina 19. Patty and her daughter fought together with Decoding Dyslexia to get Senate Bill 734 passed. This bill is to ensure by 2021, children are screened early to identify if the student is at risk for reading difficulties.

Dyslexia has become Patty's passion, because of Elaina's dyslexia. However, her platform was heart disease prevention. Keeping up with cardiovascular health led her to run 6 marathons around the world. Including the 2500 year anniversary of the first marathon. She ran the original route from Marathon, Greece to the old Olympic stadium near the Parthenon to be crowned with a laurel wreath.

Patty is a formal model, with a love for acting. She studied acting at The Woolly Mammoth Theater in Washington, DC., and also the Martin Blank Studio for 4 years, where she learned on camera acting. She hopes to continue acting now that her children are grown.

Nikki Tanner is the Middle Years Program and Diploma Program Coordinator at the Maryland International School in Elkridge, Maryland. She is passionate about education and in the span of her 30 year career she has been a French and Spanish teacher, she is the author of an online textbook series and has led study abroad immersion programs in Europe, Central and South America. Nikki has been a leader in the world of philanthropy, not only in education by establishing scholarship and service learning programs around the world, but she also established the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition of Maryland and has served on the board of various other non-profit organizations. She is a long standing sister of the Mrs. Maryland America family as Mrs. Maryland America 2004, pageant choreographer, Emcee, coach and various other roles. Leading up to her role as Mrs. Maryland America, Nikki was also crowned Mrs. Maryland International 2003, and Super Model with Style in United States system.
