Mrs. Maryland America

2021 Farewell

I competed in the Mrs. Maryland America pageant last year to celebrate my 40th birthday, to celebrate my countless blessings and the hardships I've overcome and to celebrate my determination and zest to live boldly. I entered my first pageant nervous, scared and excited for a new adventure. One decision has led to far more than I could have ever dreamed of.

Master Your Motivation is a platform I'm proud of. I wanted to focus on something positive, happy, impactful. Through my limiting belief workshops and motivational speaking, I've worked with students, business owners, community leaders, underserved communities and beyond. It's been an incredibly rewarding experience to share my unique gifts and perspective to impact my local community and state.

To my husband, CJ – My love for you grew tenfold throughout this journey. What a whirlwind! We are the A-team and can conquer the world. I could never have been crowned Mrs. Maryland America without you, my mister. Proud to be your wife and thank you for loving me so much and supporting me without one single complaint. I love you.

Christopher, Charlotte and Asher – My three littles. You hold in your little hands, mommy's whole heart. Etched in my memory forever are the countless "Mommy, you look like a beautiful princess!" remarks and the clapping and cheering in your kid-sized beach chairs in the hallway as I practiced walking in my heels. Those memories are everything to me. I love you. I love you. I love you.

To my sister queens across the nation, especially my MD/DC queens, our experience at Mrs. America will forever bond us. I am blessed to have met each of you. A huge thank you to all my family, friends, sponsors and the Mrs. Maryland America organization for believing in me. Your support has meant more to me than you'll ever know. It has been an honor to represent the great state of Maryland. I am humbled and eternally grateful to have had this opportunity of a lifetime.

To the new Mrs. Maryland America, I wish you much happiness and success in your reign. Represent your state with heart, humbleness and gratitude. Enjoy each moment and have fun!

"A crown worn on the head will last a year, but a crown worn on the heart will last a lifetime."
— Author unknown

Lots of love,

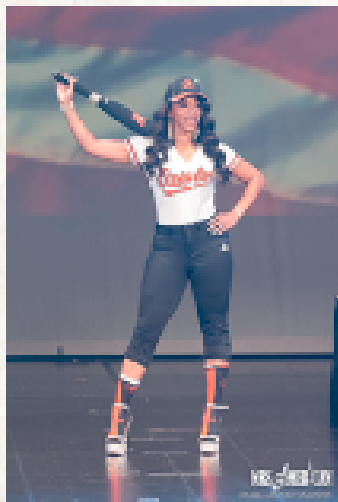

Julia Chang, Mrs. Maryland America 2021

Mrs. Maryland American 2021 Aisha Hinton

As a born and raised Marylander, my "Why" was always deeply rooted in the need to serve the people of Maryland and particularly Prince George's County. I wanted to show the children that they could achieve so much because I am cut from the same cloth as them. I wanted to show women like me that although we may not be the typical images the world pushes of beauty, we are worthy and beyond beautiful. I wanted to show mothers who battled Postpartum Depression that there was another side, and they could make it there. This time as Mrs. Maryland American has been short, but I am proud of the work I have done!

1) Planned and executed the Mrs. Bowie Maryland PPD 5K which raised money for women with PPD in my community.

2) Partnered with The March of Dimes through The Storks Nest program to provide classes and resources to mothers-to-be. Donating through sponsorship and philanthropy diapers, car seats, and Amazon Gift Cards to over 40 mothers in Maryland.

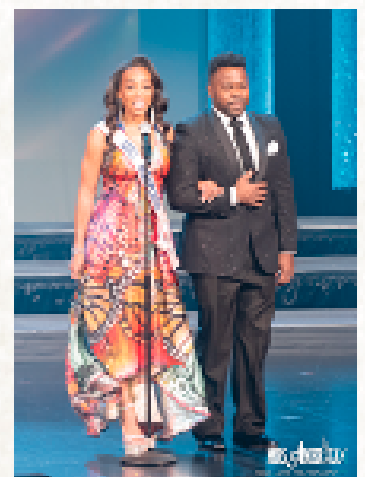

3) Authored a book for young girls that showed them that being a queen is more important than physical beauty. This story emphasizes being kind, smart, taking care of themselves, and being proud of themselves!

The ability to serve Maryland and the chance to go to Las Vegas and compete for Mrs. American and meet some of the most amazing women ever was not a solo effort. My circle is strong!!!! This was a VERY Expensive Life Moment and my family and friends dug deep and helped in ways I could not believe. Buying t-shirts, making calls, flying to Las Vegas, buying needed items, making costumes, letting me vent when I got frustrated, they did it all. My biggest supporter and sponsor has been my husband Justin! Thank you, my love! This was not possible without you! Your selfless nature, attention, time, hard work, support, finances, understanding is the stuff partnership is made of. Thank you for giving me this time to learn, grow and flourish. My children, thank you for loving mommy and giving me the energy to keep going, thank you for keeping mommy grounded. I LOVE YOU! My Mommy, my family, my friends, my co-workers; my coach-turned-friend Adrienne, Mrs. Maryland 2009; my sister Queens Julia Chang and Aziza Howard; my make-up artist Nichelle, my hairstylist Nina, Zen Nail Spa, Paul of MAVPP, Domo of Domoshoots; all of my generous sponsors; the city of Bowie, Prince George's County, Woodstream Christian Academy, SKC Learning Center, Alfred Street Baptist Church, and my Sisterhood, the amazing women of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated!!! To everyone else who helped me mentally, emotionally, financially, or through a kind word throughout this entire process, Thank you!

It was an honor to serve as your Mrs. Maryland American 2021, we have only just begun!

Aisha Hinton

Miss Maryland for America Strong 2021 Farewell

Wow! What a ride! This past year has been an amazing and memorable time in my life as a pageant queen. I chose pageantry because I believe that a person can continuously grow at any stage of life. I wanted to empower those who felt dismissed and discouraged, that unbridled determination is power. I wanted my story to inspire every woman, in particular female veterans, to pursue their path to greatness, whether that is achieving their vision of the American Dream or in respect to any other endeavor.

I am truly privileged to have this opportunity and I give honor to those who gave up their dreams, way of life, and made the ultimate sacrifice so we can have and enjoy freedom. It is because of them I am here, and it is because of them I have a voice to advocate for veteran causes.

As a veteran, I understand the daily emotional and physical struggles after returning from deployments. I wanted to throw myself into the community and tap every resource available in that arena to grow and focus attention on veterans' causes. As I walked the path of advocacy, I learned to understand the power and far-reaching effects of social media and community engagements. I will use the knowledge I gained from this experience to reach more veterans, to provide one-on-one guidance, as well as reach out to sponsors and businesses to encourage them to recognize and support veterans causes. Seeing real life impact was rewarding and one I will continue to strive for as I shed light on the topics that matter to women veterans with service-connected disabilities, and advocate on behalf of the community that entrusted me with this mission.

Today is my official last day as Miss Maryland for America Strong, and what a beautiful journey it's been. The connections that I built with these amazing people will stay with me for the rest of my life. I can only hope that I made a print in the history of state and national Pageant. As I hand over the reins to our new Queen, I want to thank everyone that has cheered me on and shown unwavering support to me, and most importantly to veteran advocacy. I will always have a special place in my heart for our Mrs. Maryland Pageant and Mrs. America community. I look forward to the new Queen and will cheer her on as she takes her place. Congratulations to the 2022 Miss Maryland for America Strong! And thank you to our veterans for serving our blessed country!
